

ACC and PCUK advertising media pack 2019

Association of Christian Counsellors (ACC) is an incorporated UK charity, limited by guarantee. It was founded in 1992, after extensive discussion with Christian counselling organisations and individual counsellors, about the growing need for a nationwide organisation to:

- represent and support Christian counsellors throughout the UK
- pursue excellence in all aspects of Christian-based counselling
- develop training in pastoral care in response to growing interest in pastoral counselling both within and beyond Church communities

ACC is the only Christian UK-wide counselling organisation holding an Accredited Register with the Professional Standards Authority. ACC's mission is to facilitate the provision by Christians of quality counselling and pastoral care; it defines Christian counselling as those activities which "...seek to help people towards constructive change and growth in any or every aspect of their lives, through a caring relationship and within agreed relational boundaries, carried out by a counsellor who holds a Christian worldview".

Today ACC represents, supports and speaks for around 1,500 members and 100 affiliated organisations. These include counselling students, counselling practitioners, counselling supervisors and pastoral care members. Our affiliated organisations include counselling agencies, training agencies, para church organisations and churches.

Pastoral Care UK (PCUK) was launched as part of ACC in 2013 to focus on supporting individuals, churches and organisations to deliver and understand pastoral care. It offers membership and a range of pastoral care training courses.

Our affiliate members alone deliver some 150,000 client counselling sessions each year, touching the lives of distressed men, women and children of all ages and backgrounds.

Accord magazine

Accord is published quarterly and is slightly under A4 format full colour glossy magazine. It is circulated to all members and affiliated organisations. Current circulation is around 2,500 copies.

We welcome written articles for inclusion in our magazine. If you wish to contribute, a copy of our guidelines is available on request.

Free adverts for affiliates: 'In Touch' section of Accord

ACC Affiliate organisations, with up to date affiliate membership, can advertise their service or vacancies in the "In Touch" section of Accord for free. The advert would appear as 1/6th of a page.

If you wish to have an advert in the "In Touch" section, please send your advert to: Office@acc-uk.org approximately one month before the press date (see Deadlines on page 1).

- Your advert and logo must fit into a 5.6cm by 11.2cm column.
- Adverts that are too big to fit into 5.6cm by 11.2cm column size will not be published in "In Touch" but can be paid for as an advertisement elsewhere in the magazine.
- Less than 100 words.
- Please ensure you edit your draft before sending. Unfortunately, we can't do that for you.
- We only accept bookings for next issue of Accord only
- These adverts are accepted on a first come first served basis.
- Please see the section above about copyright – this is the advertiser's responsibility.

Please send your advert in the following formats:

- If you generate your advert in Microsoft Word or Microsoft Publisher, supply a jpg or pdf file.
- If the logo is sent separately from the text, it should be in one of the following formats: jpg, pdf, png, eps, ai or gif
- If your advert is a complete repeat from a previous edition, you need only to supply the page number and name of the edition.

Digital advertising policy

Introduction

- In response to requests from non-members who wish to advertise vacancies, courses and events etc, the Association of Christian Counsellors has decided to take paid advertising from non-members provided it is relevant to the aims and principles of ACC and PCUK. A similar service will be open to ACC and PCUK members, who will receive a discount. Please see the section above about copyright – this is the advertiser's responsibility.
- Payment needs to be made in advance of publication for advertising on the ACC website.
